It was a _____ and _____ night. _____
kids were attending the Young Writers Club at the _____ Public Library. All the kids were _____. Over and over again. Suddenly, they all heard a very loud, very _____ noise, coming from the back door.

"What was that!?" said _____

"I don't know, but it kind of reminds me of a _____!!!" squealed _____

The bravest of the group, _____, decided to check it out.

"Wait, don't!" yelled everyone. "It could be one of those _____ from _____!!"

"I'm not scared of those! If it tries anything _____, I'll _____ it on the
_____!"

The sound started to get louder, and a _____ shadow resembling a _____ appeared through the glass.

So slowly, he/she crept over to the back door. She/he closed his/her eyes, _____ flung open the door, and yelled

"_____"

Everyone gasped. On the other side of the door was a giant _____ _____ with _____ eyes and the scariest _____ anyone had ever seen!

The creature opened its mouth and said, "_____
_____"

Everyone screamed "NO!!!"

As they closed the door, they could see in the creature's eyes that it felt deeply _____ about what it had done.

With that out of the way, the kids were ready to start their writing club, and were super excited to learn about writing _____ dialogue.

The end.
